IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.39610 of 2008
HULAS THAKUR, S/o Ram Sakal Thakur, R/o Vill. Anjan,
P.S. Madanpur, Dist. Aurangabad.
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR

2/ 26.11.2008 Heard.

Police in course of investigation proceeded on the basis that the offences alleged to have been committed by the petitioner are bailable offences and accordingly, granted bail to the petitioner. After investigation, Police has submitted charge sheet against the petitioner alleging therein that the petitioner has committed non-bailable offences. Being apprehensive of arrest in connection therewith, petitioner seeks anticipatory bail. In the event anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioner, the same will tantamount to permit the petitioner to disown his obligation in terms of the bail bond he has executed upon grant of bail by the Police. Accordingly, the application for grant of anticipatory bail is rejected. The petitioner is required to comply with the terms contained in the bail bond.

Considering the non-bailable offences alleged in the charge sheet and comparing the same with the injury report, it would be appropriate on the part of the Court below to expedite the application of the petitioner for grant of regular bail as and when filed.
